The Beginning

---

Hi and welcome to faith with Petra.

I'm Petra.

The author and creator of this blog faith with Petra. And this is my 1st blog.

It's the beginning, the genesis shall we say of me documenting my insights and findings as I continue to read the bible and develop my faith and learn more about God. The main reason I'm doing this is to produce something tangible where I can see the evidence of me growing in wisdom and understanding of God and the Bible. I love God and I want to find out who exactly is my creator and have a close, personal, genuine relationship with God our father. And one of the ways, the key ways of drawing closer to God is found in the Bible. The bible truly is a treasure trove of information. To me I see it as a handbook to life. It has all the principles needed to navigate this life that we're living. So, I hope you enjoy my insights and that it to spurs you on to gain a greater insight into the bible too. I will be providing both a written piece, the written blog post and an audio transcription and also these audio reflection pieces too. Why I'm doing all of these audio parts it's because even though I'm not the most loquacious of people I do like the sound of my own voice. So, I hope you'll both read and also listen to the blog post I put out. And to end I'll finish with one of my favourite bible verses which is Proverbs 4:7 "Get wisdom though it costs all you have get understanding", and that my friends can only be found in the Bible.

Ok that's me.

Petra signing off.

Thanks
